

Strayed from the Path of Life!

Author: Age 16

I strayed from the path of my life.
My path of life is lost.
Can't find my way back.
The path I took was not to life.
It was the path to worry, sorrow, misery, and pain.
I'm not able to find my way back through my mind.
My mind is a maze.
I'm lost in a world with no happiness and no fun.
My decision I can't make.
I strayed from the path of life.
The only turning back is through the light you have cast for me to see.
The only light I see is yours.
The path back to life is the path you gave me to find.
The Path Back To Life.
